

- What kind of feeling or story do you think this photograph is trying to convey?
- Look at the title and explain what the text is going to be about.

1

MATCH THE FOLLOWING EXPRESSIONS THAT YOU ARE GOING TO READ IN THE TEXT WITH THEIR DEFINITIONS.

- | | | |
|------------------------|----------|---------------------------------|
| 1. am knee-deep in | E | a. light conversation |
| 2. by some miracle | F | b. make people feel comfortable |
| 3. like a master class | C | c. excellent training |
| 4. of very few words | G | d. first-class |
| 5. put at ease | B | e. have more than enough |
| 6. small talk | A | f. incredibly lucky |
| 7. top-notch | D | g. not speaking very much |

2

READING STRATEGIES (SKIMMING & SCANNING)

3

LEARNING OBJECTIVES

Distinguish between skimming and scanning.

Apply both strategies to locate specific information and the main idea within a text.

4

ACTIVITY

Divide into three groups.

- Group A will read page 16.
- Group B will read page 17.
- Group C will read page 18.

Skimming Task:

- Write down the main idea of each paragraph in the text assigned.

My journey in photographs-skimming scanning.pdf

ACTIVITY

Scanning- Group A

- At what age did Anie get her first job?
- What was the name of her university newspaper?
- Who was the publisher of the Worthington Daily Globe?

Scanning- Group B

- Who was Paul Gruchow, and what did Annie learn from him?
- What natural disaster photo led to her National Geographic job?
- Who offered her the position at National Geographic?

Scanning- Group C

- What types of transportation did Annie use on assignments?
- What challenge did she face while travelling?
- Why did she tour two developing countries with her photographs?

-
- Complete the tasks given on pages 20 and 21.

ANSWERS

Reading Comprehension

- 1b
- 2c
- 3c (lines 24-25)
- 4a (lines 34-38)
- 5b (lines 55-68)
- 6c (lines 87-88)
- 7c (lines 123-124)

Reading Skill

- | | |
|-------------------|---------------|
| ▪ A | ▪ B |
| 1 F (lines 8-10) | 1. Pulitzer |
| 2 F (lines 29-31) | 2. year |
| 3 T (lines 27-28) | 3. mule; raft |
| 4 T (lines 32-33) | 4. Two |
| 5 F (lines 44-45) | 5. difference |
| 6 F (lines 60-64) | 6. touch |

CRITICAL THINKING

- Griffiths says she has learned that “women really do hold up half the sky.” What do you think she means by this?
- How might this story inspire students in fields outside of photography?

THANK YOU

Reference:

Reading Explorer 4, Unit 1.

Email address: aisha.majeedl@duhs.edu.pk