

SIRAH OF THE HOLY PROPHET(SAW) AS USWA-I-HASANA

FACULTY OF ISLAMIC STUDIES

GENERAL EDUCATION

DIHPE - DOW UNIVERSITY OF HEALTH SCIENCES (DUHS)

Topic # II
Lecture # I

LIFE AND LEGACY OF THE HOLY PROPHET MUHAMMAD (SAW)

LIFE OF HAZRAT MUHAMMAD (SAW) BEFORE PROPHETHOOD

- Hazrat Muhammad (SAW) was born on the 12th of Rabi ul Awwal in the year of Elephant, corresponding the 20th of April, 570, 52 days after the Event of Elephant.
- His father's name is Abdullah, son of Abdul Muttalib, bin Hashim bin Abd-e-Manaaf of Quraish family. His father Hazrat Abdullah died in Madinah, where he travelled when he was 25 years old. Six months after his death, his wife Hazrat Amina gave birth to a child, and he was named "Muhammad".
- The name "Muhammad" was given by his grandfather Abdul Muttalib, and "Ahmad" was given by his mother.
- Surname of the Prophet (SAW) was Abu-ul-Qasim. Prophet (SAW) belonged to Banu Hashim clan of Quraish tribe.

CONTINUE.....

- ✓ First Foster Mother : Hazrat Sowaiba (slave girl of Abu Lahab)
- ✓ Second Foster Mother : Hazrat Halima Sadia (6 years)
- ✓ Third Foster Mother : Hazrat Umm e Aeyman (Barakah)
 - After few days of birth, he was given to his second foster mother, Hazrat Halima Sadia, who took him to a village, and he returned at the age of six.
 - When he came back, his mother, Hazrat Amina, took him to Yasrib to meet a few relatives, introduce him to the city. and visit the grave of the Prophet's father.
 - However, on their way back Hazrat Amina fell ill and died, and she was buried in the village of Abwa.

CONTINUE.....

- Back in Makkah, the Prophet's grandfather, Hazrat Abdul Mutalib the chief of Makkah took his custody; but he too passed away two years later. The Prophet(SAW) then went to live with his uncle, Abu Talib, who raised him like his own son.
- During this time, a woman named Umm-e-Aymen developed a close bond with the Prophet (SAW) as she looked after him and cared for him like a mother.
- Abu Talib was a respected member of the Quraish tribe and a skilled tradesman, who taught the young Muhammad (SAW) various skills, including how to be a shepherd. In the beginning Hazrat Muhammad (SAW) worked as a shepherd for Banu Saad tribe.

THE FIRST JOURNEY OF SYRIA

- When Prophet Muhammad (SAW) was 12 years old, his uncle Hazrat Abu Talib took him on a business trip to Syria. It was the first trip, and it was a significant event in the life of the Prophet (SAW) as it exposed him to a different culture and way of life.
- During their trip, they stopped in a monastery in the city of Busra, where a monk named Bahira recognized the signs of prophethood in the young Muhammad (SAW) and cautioned them to not continue their journey ahead.

SACRILEGIOUS WAR

- When the Prophet (SAW) was 15 years old, 'Sacrilegious war' (Harb al-Fujjar) broke out. It was a pre-Islamic conflict.
- The war was fought between the Quraish and Qais tribes over trade and economic interests, as well as disputes over territory and resources.
- The Prophet (SAW) accompanied his uncles in this war, who were members of the Quraish tribe.
- While the Prophet (SAW) did participate in the war, his role was minor, primarily involving the collection of arrows thrown by the enemy and handing them over to his uncles.

HILF AL-FUDUL

- After the Sacrilegious war Zubair bin Abdul Muttalib proposed to revive an old agreement known as, 'Hilf al-Fudul'.
- Hilf al-Fudul was an alliance formed in pre-Islamic Arabia between various tribes in Mecca to protect and defend the cause of the weak, the poor, and the orphan, and establish justice. Hilf al-Fudul was a peace treaty signed by the leaders of prominent tribes of Makkah.
- The Prophet Muhammad (SAW) was not only present but actively participated at the time of the formation of Hilf al-Fudul and spoke highly of the alliance even after the advent of Islam. He reportedly said, "I witnessed in the house of Abdullah ibn Judan a pact which was more appealing to me than a herd of camels. If I were called to it now in Islam, I would respond."

MARRIAGE TO HAZRAT KHADIJA (RA)

- During his early years, the Prophet (SAW) came to be known as Al-Sadiq and Al-Amin.
- In such times, a widow trader, Hazrat Khadija (RA), needed a trustworthy person to carry her goods to Syria.
- She heard of the good character of the prophet (SAW) and decided to hire him.

CONTINUE....

- Maissara a slave of Hazrat Khadija(RA) accompanied Prophet (SAW) to Syria. She sent Maissara along on the trade expedition, and when they returned not just had the Prophet (SAW) made huge profits, but Maissara spoke a lot good about the Prophet (SAW). Hazrat Khadija(RA) was so impressed that she sent a marriage proposal to the Prophet (SAW), which was accepted on his behalf by Hazrat Abu Talib, his uncle.
- Although Hazrat Khadija (RA) was 15 years older than the Prophet (SAW), they had a successful marriage and had 6 children, 2 of whom died in infancy.

THE FAMILY OF HAZRAT MUHAMMADSAW

The Marriage of Prophet Muhammad (SAW) and Hazrat Khadija (RA)

- Hazrat Khadija (RA), the daughter of Khuwaylid, was a resident of Makkah. She also belonged to the tribe of Quraish.

Prophet Muhammad's Children:

- The family of Prophet Muhammad SAW also includes his seven children. Six of them were from his first wife, Hazrat Khadijah (RA), while Ibrahim was from Hazrat Mariyah al-Qibtiyyah (RA). His three sons were Qasim, Abdullah and Ibrahim, all of whom passed away in early childhood. He also had four daughters, namely:

- Hazrat Zainab: She was Hazrat Muhammad's eldest daughter from Khadija. She converted to Islam as soon as Muhammad revealed himself as the Prophet.
- Hazrat Ruqaiyyah: She became a Muslim at the same time as her mother.
- Hazrat Umm Kulthum: She was Hazrat Muhammad SAW and Hazrat Khadija's daughter. Shortly after her mother died, she converted to Islam.
- Hazrat Fatimah: She was Hazrat Muhammad's youngest daughter and the mother of his grandsons, Hazrat Hussain and Hazrat Hassan. She spent most of her time praying and is considered a role model for all Muslims.

FIXING OF BLACK STONE

- Later, once, when the Ka'abah was being rebuilt, the issue of fixing the black stone aroused. Everybody wanted to this prestigious task, and none was willing to compromise; so much so that bloodshed was feared.
- In such a hostile situation, an elderly man (Walid bin Mughaira) suggested that anybody who entered the Ka'abah first would make the decision.
- Fortunately, it was the Holy Prophet (SAW) who made a very wise decision.
- He laid the stone on a sheet and told the leaders of the tribes to hold the sheet from each corner and lift it up.
- When the stone reached the desired level, the Prophet (SAW) picked the stone and placed it on its position. Thus, everyone was happy.

LIFE OF HOLY PROPHET (SAW) IN MAKKAH

First Revelation

- Before the first revelation, when the Prophet Muhammad (SAW) was nearing the age of 40, he experienced true dreams for approximately six months, and whatever he saw in them came true as clearly as the break of dawn.
- He would take dates and water along and meditate in the cave of Hira. Cave Hira is in the An-Noor mountain.
- He reflected upon the monotheistic faith of his forefather, Prophet Ibrahim (AS), and detested the ill practices prevalent among the Arabs.
- During one of these days, which occurred at the close of the holy month of Ramadan, an angel named Hazrat Jibrael (A.S) came before him and requested that he read.

CONTINUE...

مَا أَنَا بِقَارِئٍ

- The Prophet (SAW) replied that he could not read since he had not received any formal education. The angel then hugged him tightly and asked him again to read.
 - The Prophet (SAW) again, replied that he could not read.
 - The angel again squeezed the Prophet (SAW) tightly and repeated his demand for the third time. The Prophet (SAW) finally asked, what should I read?
 - In response, the angel recited the first 5 verses of Surah Alaq (The 96th chapter of the Holy Quran):
- ❖ Read! in the name of your Lord, who created, 2. Created man out of a clot of congealed blood: 3. Proclaim! And your Lord is most bountiful, 4. He who taught by the pen, 5. Taught man what he did not know.

CONTINUE.....

- After the Holy Prophet (SAW) had recited these verses, the angel disappeared.
- In confusion, the Prophet (SAW) ran out of the cave.
- Outside, he saw the angel filling the horizon and then he heard a voice: “O Muhammad! You are the messenger of Allah, and I am Jibrael”.
- The Prophet (SAW) ran to his house and asked Hazrat Khadija (RA) to cover him up in a blanket.
- He then narrated the entire incident to her.
- On hearing the entire account, Hazrat Khadija (RA) pacified him by saying: “you have never done any wrong to anyone. You are kind to the others and help the poor. Allah will not let you down”.

CONVERSATION WITH WARQA BIN NAUFAL

- Hazrat Khadija (RA) later took the Prophet (SAW) to her cousin and Christian scholar, Waraqah ibn Nawfal.
- Warqa confirmed the prophet hood of the prophet (SAW) and said that he had been visited by the same angel who had visited other prophets.
- He also forewarned that the Prophet (SAW) will be expelled from his own city by his own people.

After this Holy Quran was revealed unto the Holy Prophet (SAW) bit by bit after intervals. The Holy Prophet (SAW) accordingly started his mission of preaching Islam and the infidels started to oppose him and to torture the newly converted Holy companions (RA) who were very poor slaves and belonged to humble class of society.

OPPOSITION AND PERSECUTION BY THE QURAISH

- During his early years, the Prophet (SAW) had to face severe persecution and opposition from the Quraish, some examples are mentioned below:
- When the Holy prophet (SAW) first called them to Islam at the mount of Safa, he was ridiculed and made fun of.
- The Makkans wrote poems to ridicule the Prophet (SAW) and called him a magician.
- Once, when the Prophet (SAW) was praying a Quraish threw the intestines of a camel on his back while he was prostrating.

- Umm-e-Jabeel, the wife of Abu Lahab, used to throw thorny bushes on the path of Prophet (SAW).
- Abu Lahab told his sons to divorce their wives who were the Prophet's Daughters, just to add to his worries.
- When both of the Prophet's sons passed away in infancy, the Quraish called him “abtar” – he who has no male descendants.
- They also offered him bribes like making him king or marrying him to the prettiest girl so that he would stop preaching Islam.

THE EARLY CONVERTERS

Among Male, Hazrat Abu Bakr Siddique (RA)

Among Female, Hazrat Khadija-tul-kubra (RA)

Among Children, Hazrat Ali Ibn-e-Talib (RA)

Among Slaves, Hazrat Zaid Ibn Haritha (RA)

MIGRATION TO ABYSSINIA – HABSHA/ ETHIOPIA

- The early Muslim community in Makkah faced severe persecution from the Quraish tribe, prompting the Prophet Muhammad SAW to seek a solution for his followers' safety and well-being.
- 15 Muslims went to Abyssinia on the instructions of the Prophet Muhammad (SAW), and that was the Islam's first migration. A group of eleven men and four women secretly left for Abyssinia, these included Hazrat Usman (RA) and his wife Hazrat Ruqaiya (RA), daughter of the Prophet SAW..
- The second group followed another group of 70 men including Hazrat Jafar (RA) son of Abu Talib.
- In front of Najashi (also known as Negus), the ruler of Abyssinia, the Muslims were represented by Jafar ibn Abi Talib.
- Hearing about Muslim migration, Quraish sent a mission to Abyssinia. This envoy told Abyssinia's king about Muslims. Saddened by Najashi's refusal, Quraishi returned to Makkah.
- It was occurred in 5th year prophetic year.

BOYCOTT OF HASHIMITES BY QURAISH

- In the 7th year of the Holy Prophet's mission , all the chiefs of Makkah drafted an agreement against the Hashimites. Under the agreement, total boycott of Hashimites was proclaimed; nobody was entitled to have any relation with them including the sale of food stuff untill the Holy Prophet (SAW) was executed or handed over to Quraish. The agreement was signed by all the leaders of Makkah. It was hung on the Kabah, so that no one could dare to violate it.
- For 3 whole years, all the people of Banu Hashim except Abu Jahal were forced to leave in a secluded valley known as 'Sha'ab of Abu Talib' in the outskirts of Makkah. Sha'ab means valley.

CONTINUE....

- A total boycott, social and economic was done with them so much so that they had to survive on boiled leather and wild leaves for food.
- Allah revealed to the Holy Prophet (SAW) that the earthworms had eaten every thing that had been written in the pact with the exception of the name of Allah. When the Quraish leaders viewed the paper they had signed and found this to be true, they ended the boycott.

THE YEAR OF GRIEF

- In the 10th year of Holy Prophet's mission, In between such persecutions, Prophet's wife Hazrat Khadija (RA) and his uncle Hazrat Abu Talib passed away. This was a huge loss for the Prophet (SAW) because both of them had been a source of immense support for the Prophet (SAW). It was because of this tragic loss that the Prophet (SAW) called this YEAR THE YEAR OF GRIEF.

VISIT TO TAIF

- While the Prophet (SAW) was just recovering from this loss, he decided to focus on the expansion of Islam.
- Therefore, he travelled to the valley of Taif along with his adopted son, Zaid Bin Haris (RA), to preach Islam.
- His message was not at all welcomed there in fact young boys hurled stones at him until he bled.
- Eventually, the Prophet (SAW) took refuge in a nearby orchard and when an angel asked about punishing the people, the Prophet (SAW) refused recognizing their influence and in fact prayed for them.
- After this event he realized that he needed another place to preach Islam as it was certainly not acceptable to the people of Taif or Makkah.

ASCENSION (MI'RAJ)

- Al' Isra (الاسراء):) the journey from Masjid e Haram (Makkah) to Masjid e Aqsa (Jerusalem).
- Al' Mairaj (المعراج):) the journey from Masjid e Aqsa to Sidra-tul-Muntaha (the Prophet's PBUH ascension to the heavens).
- This important journey is known as Mi'raj took place on 27th of Rajab (the Islamic month).
- In the 10th year of prophet hood, the Holy Prophet SAW was taken for Isra and Mairaj.
- While the Holy Prophet SAW was asleep in his house, Jibrael (A.S) took him to Ka'abah, where the Holy Prophet SAW rode a mule like animal called Burraq.

CONTINUE....

- It took him to Jerusalem where the Holy Prophet SAW offered two Rakat.
- He again rode the Burraq, and they reached the heavens.
- The prophet (SAW) was taken to all seven heavens where he met various prophets.
- Angel Jibrael (AS) then led them to the lote tree beyond which the angel couldn't go but the Prophet (PBUH) was permitted to go.
- Allah spoke to him directly over there and the last verses of Surah Baqarah were revealed.

PLEDGES OF AQABAH:

- On his return from Taif, Prophet (SAW) resumed his preaching, concentrating more on outsiders who came to Makkah for pilgrimage.
- In the eleventh year of Prophet Hood, six pilgrims from the tribe of Khazraj in Madinah came to Makkah.
- The Prophet(SAW) called them to Islam and they embraced faith.
- Next year, 12 people from Yasrib met the Prophet (SAW) at Aqabah, accepted faith, agreed to abstain from idol worship, cruelty and falsehood, lead a righteous life and believe in one God.
- This was called the First Pledge of Aqabah.
- These newly converts promised to spread Islam in Yasrib.

CONTINUE....

- The Prophet (SAW) sent 2 people with them to preach Islam to the residents of Yasrib.
- In the 13th year of prophet hood, a delegation consisting of 75 people came from Yasrib to take the same pledge which was now called the 2nd pledge of Aqabah.
- They also invited the Prophet (SAW) to Yasrib and pledged full support for him and his followers. This made the Prophet (SAW) realize that the people of Yasrib were keen to accept Islam and their hospitality could be beneficial to Islam.

The final blow was when the Makkans gathered at Dar-un-Nadwa and made a plan to assassinate the Holy Prophet (SAW), so much so that he and his followers were forced to migrate to Madinah.

LIFE OF HOLY PROPHET (S.A.W) IN MADINA

Main events of Migration

- The Prophet (SAW) allowed his followers to migrate to Yasrib.
- When the Quraish got to know of it, they gathered at Dar-un-Nadwa and unanimously decided to assassinate the Prophet (SAW).
- Allah informed the prophet (SAW) about this plot through a revelation and permitted him to leave. Holy Prophet (SAW) said to Hazrat Ali (RA) to sleep in his bed to fool the Quraish and also to return the valuable people had kept with the Prophet(SAW).
- The Holy Prophet (SAW) started migration.

- The Holy prophet (SAW) took a handful of dust, recited Surah Al-Yaseen Verse(9) and threw it on them. Due to the effect of this dust, the Holy Prophet (SAW) surpassed before them but none could see him.
- Allah states in Surah Al-Yaseen Verse(9):
- ❖ And We have set a bar before them and a bar behind them, and (thus) have covered them so that they see not. (9)
- The Holy Prophet (SAW) then left for Madina with Hazrat Abu Bakar Siddique (RA).
- They decided to hide in a cave, named Saur, for some time.
- They stayed for 3 days. When the Quraish came looking for the Holy Prophet (SAW), they did not bother looking inside the cave as a pigeon had laid eggs at the threshold of the cave, a spider had formed a web and branches of a tree were covering the entrance, these were all miracles of Allah.

- During this stay, Hazrat Abu Bakar Siddique (RA) was worried so the Holy Prophet (SAW) consoled him by saying: “have no fear for Allah is with us”.
- Allah states in Surah Al-Taubah Verse (40):
 - ❖ If ye help him not, still Allah helped him when those who disbelieve drove him forth, the second of two; when they two were in the cave, when he said unto his comrade: Grieve not. Lo! Allah is with us. Then Allah caused His peace of reassurance to descend upon him and supported him with hosts ye cannot see, and made the word of those who disbelieved the nethermost, while Allah's Word it was that became the uppermost. Allah is Mighty, Wise. (40)

- Upon discovery of his escape, the leaders of Quraish put up a reward of one hundred camel on him, dead or alive.
- After three days when the Holy Prophet (SAW) and Hazrat Abu Bakar (RA) were sure that the Quraish were no longer following them, they continued their journey.
- Despite all their best scouts and search parties, Allah protected the Holy Prophet (SAW) and he arrived safely in Quba, a suburb of Madina.
- They again stopped at Quba for 14 days where Hazrat Ali (RA) joined them and the 1st mosque (MASJID E QUBA) of Islam was built.
- This event is known as the 'Hijra' (migration), and the Islamic calendar begins with this event.

- The Prophet arrived at Madinah on 16 Rabiul Awwal.
- After the Arrival of the Holy Prophet (SAW) name of Yathrib was changed in Madina.
- The migration marked a crucial moment in Islamic history, establishing the first Islamic state and spreading Islam beyond Makkah.
- When the people of Madina (Aws and Khazraj) heard of their arrival, they were anxiously waiting. Upon their arrival, they publicly welcomed them.
- Everybody wanted the Holy Prophet (SAW) to stay with them but the Holy Prophet (SAW) said that his camel (Al-Qaswa) was under divine instructions so he would stay where the camel stopped.
- The camel stopped at an open ground which belonged to two orphans (Sahl and Suhail), and the Holy Prophet (SAW) decided to build a mosque on that place after paying the orphans its price.

- 45 Companions were with Holy Prophet (SAW) in migration to Madina.
- This mosque was known as the Mosque of the Prophet (Masjid-e-Nabawi). The Holy Prophet (SAW) himself took part in building the mosque and was assisted by many of his companions.
- A large platform with a thatched roof was built in one of the corners. It was known as Suffah.
- The Ashab us-Suffah were companions of the Prophet (SAW) who, along with the performance of religious duties, were mostly tradesmen or farmers. Some had, however, dedicated their lives exclusively for prayer and spiritual discipline in the close company of the Prophet (SAW).
- They neither had wives nor children, and if any were to get married, he would leave the group. Many of them would go to the jungle in the day to collect wood, which would then be sold for money to feed themselves and the other members of the 'suffah
- Meanwhile, the Holy Prophet (SAW) stayed at Hazrat Abu Ayub Ansari's residence.

IMPORTANT EVENTS OF LIFE HOLY PROPHET IN MADINA

I HIJRIH

Brotherhood

- The makkans had left their families and belongings in Makkah and now they needed financial support.
- Holy Prophet (SAW) arranged the brotherhood between the immigrants of Makkah and Madina which is called Mowakhat.
- The Ansar offered endless support to the emigrants and tried their best to facilitate them.
- The emigrants, on the other hand, did not become a burden on the Ansar and soon started living independently.

Surah al-Anfal Ayat No: 74.

- ❖ Those who believed and left their homes and strove with their wealth and their lives for the cause of Allah, and those who gave them shelter and helped them are friends to one another.

AZAAN

- The revelation came for the call of Azan.
- It is narrated that Hazrat Zaid (RA) and Hazrat Umar (RA) both dreamt the same wording which they narrated to the Holy Prophet (SAW).
- Holy Prophet (SAW) pleased and approved the wordings for calling out people for congregational prayer.
- Hazrat Bilal (RA) was appointed as the first 'Moazzin' to summon the worshippers for the congregational obligatory prayers.

COVENANT OF MADINA (THE MEDINA CHARTER)

- The Medina Charter, also known as the Constitution of Medina, is one of the most remarkable documents in the history of governance and Islamic civilization. It was drafted by Prophet Muhammad (SAW) in the year 622 CE, soon after his migration (Hijrah) from Makkah to Yathrib, which later became known as Madina. The Charter was designed to bring peace among the diverse tribes and religious communities of the city and to lay the foundation for a just and united society. It is considered by many historians and scholars as one of the first written constitutions in the world.
- When the Prophet SAW arrived in Medina, the city was a melting pot of different communities. It included the two major Arab tribes, Aws and Khazraj, several Jewish tribes such as Banu Qaynuqa, Banu Nadir, and Banu Qurayza, as well as both Muslims and pagans. These groups had a long history of mutual conflict, blood feuds, and a lack of centralized authority.

CONTINUE.....

- The Prophet SAW aimed to unite these groups under a single community while respecting their religious and cultural differences. The result was the Medina Charter (a political and social agreement that defined the responsibilities and rights of all residents of Medina.)
- The Medina Charter contained around 47 to 52 clauses, covering religion, justice, security, and cooperation. It recognized Muslims as a single Ummah, transcending tribal divisions, and granted religious freedom to non-Muslims, especially Jews, declaring them part of the community with their own faith. The Charter also ensured mutual defense, justice through consultation, and appointed Prophet Muhammad SAW as the final authority. It protected life and property, discouraged revenge, and introduced a system of blood money to end tribal violence.

2 HIJRIH

Battle of Badar

- The most significant battle of Badar fought in the same year on the 17th Ramadan, 2 Hijrih. In Makkah, the Holy Prophet (SAW) faced only one main enemy.
- The Quraish, who eventually forced him to migrate from Makkah. In Madinah, however, the Holy Prophet (SAW) faced three main opposing groups: the Quraish, the Jewish tribes who violated treaties with the Muslims, and the Hypocrites (Munafiqin), who outwardly professed Islam but worked against the Muslim community.
- Allah had permitted Muslims to engage in Jihad (defensive fighting) after migration, as mentioned in the Qur'an:

“Those who are attacked have been permitted (to fight back) as they have been oppressed—and Allah has the power to help them..”

(Surah Al-Hajj, Ayah 39)

- When the Holy Prophet (SAW) was informed that the Quraish were advancing towards Madinah to attack, he called upon the Muslims to defend their city.

CONTINUE.....

- The two tribes clashed at Badar; a village located eighty miles from Medina. The Quraish numbered in the thousands and were well-equipped, even bringing a vast quantity of food with them. On the Muslim side, there was a shortage of water, and they are 313,
- As the battle commenced, the Holy Prophet prostrated himself before Allah and sought His assistance. Suddenly, a torrential rainfall occurred, providing the Muslims with much-needed water. With divine intervention, The Muslims placed their trust in Allah, and Allah strengthened them by sending angels to support them in the Battle of Badr.
- Allah granted victory to the Muslims.
- Seventy of the Quraish were killed, and seventy were taken as prisoners. In contrast, the Muslims suffered minimal losses, with only fourteen casualties.
- The Holy Quran has declared this war a criterion between right or wrong.
- Abu Jahal was killed in this battle by Mu'aaz and Mu'awwiz two ansaari youngsters.

Changing Qibla

- When the Holy Prophet (SAW) emigrated to Madina, the Qibla was toward Al-Aqsa Masjid.
- This was a temporary situation.
- The Holy Prophet (SAW) wanted to pray towards the Kabah and Allah responded to his Prophet (SAW),
- In the month of Rajab (or Shaban) in 2 Hijrih the command was given to face the Ka'bah (Masjid-e-Haram, Makkah), instead of facing Baitul Maqсад during Prayer (Salaah).
- The Qibla was changed during the Zuhar prayer in a Masjid, which is known as 'Masjid-e-Qiblatain' (Masjid of the two directions) from Jerusalem to Kabah as a result of the divine revelation.

3 HIJRIH

Battle of Uhad

- Battle of Uhad was the second battle between Muslims and Quraish. The Quraysh wanted to get revenge because they had lost a previous battle called the Battle of Badar.
- The battle of Uhud took place on 7th Shawaal 3 Hijrih.
- The army of disbelievers was three thousand while Muslims were thousand.
- Adbullah bin Ubayy and three hundred of his followers deserted the muslims and returned to Madina. The Muslim army was left with only seven hundred soldiers.
- At first, the Muslims had a good position on a mountain called Uhud, which gave them an advantage.
- The battle started well for the Muslims. They fought back and pushed the Quraysh fighters away. But some Muslim archers left their positions to collect things (Mal e Ghanimat) from the enemy, which was against the plan.

- Taking advantage of this mistake, the Quraysh cavalry, led by a skilled commander named Khalid ibn al-Walid, attacked the Muslim side from behind. This caused confusion and made it harder for the Muslims to defend themselves.
- Even though the Muslims showed bravery and fought hard, they couldn't keep their strong position. None of the armies could win the battle of Uhad.
- The Prophet Muhammad (SAW) got injured, and twenty-two or twenty-three disbelievers were killed and seventy Muslims martyred in this battle.
- However, Muslims had to suffer a great loss because of disobedience of the Holy Prophet (SAW) instruction.
- The Battle of Uhud was a tough fight for the Muslims, the Muslims learned important lessons about discipline and following plans in future battles.

5 HIJRIH

Battle of Trenches

- Battle of Khandaq (trench) or Battle of Ahzaab (groups) took place in Zil-Qa`dah 5 A.H. All the groups (Quraish of Makkah, the Jews and Munafiqeen (Hypocrites)) gathered their forces and decided to attack Madina.
- An army of ten thousand fierce warriors, which later doubled, marched towards Madina to destroy the Muslims.
- Hazrat Salmaan Farsi (RA) suggested to make trenches around the city of Madina. Then Prophet Muhammad (SAW) together with three thousand companions prepared to dig these trenches which was 5 meters wide and 5 meters deep and about 8 kilometers long. It took the 6 days to complete digging it.

- When the enemy groups arrived, they were unable to cross the trench and instead laid siege to Madinah for several weeks. During this time, Banu Quraizah broke their treaty with the Muslims, creating a serious internal threat.
- Due to the intensity of the situation, some prayers were delayed and later offered together. Despite fear, hunger, and hardship, the Muslims remained steadfast and trusted in Allah.
- Allah sent a powerful storm (like a hurricane) against the enemy, which destroyed their camps, uprooted their tents, and spread fear among them. As a result, the enemy groups became divided and retreated without a decisive battle.

6 HIJRIH

Treaty of Hudaibiya

- The Treaty of Hudaibiyyah (Ṣulḥ al-Ḥudaybiyyah) was a significant peace agreement between Prophet Muhammad SAW and the Quraish tribe of Makkah in 628 CE (6 AH).
- This was written by Hazrat Ali bin Abi Talib. It was signed near the place of Hudaibiyyah after negotiations when the Prophet SAW and 1,400 Muslims arrived in a peaceful state to perform Umrah, following a dream he had seen.
- The Quraish denied them entry into Makkah, leading to the treaty.

Key terms included:

- Muslims would return to Madinah that year and come for pilgrimage the next year; a 10-year truce would be upheld; and Mutual pacts with other tribes were allowed, enabling Arab tribes to choose an alliance with either the Muslims or the Quraysh..Also, if someone from Makkah joined the Muslims, they would be returned, but not vice versa.

CONTINUE.....

- Though seemingly unfavorable to Muslims at first, the treaty proved highly beneficial. It reduced hostilities, allowed for peaceful spread of Islam, and showed the Prophet SAW as a recognized leader.
- Allah revealed Surah Fatah, wherein this treaty was termed as an open victory.
- Many accepted Islam during this time, and the Quraish's indirect recognition of the Muslim state marked a turning point in Islamic history.
- The treaty taught lessons of patience, diplomacy, and long-term strategy, and is seen as a key step in the eventual conquest of Makkah.
- Treaty of Hudaibiyah is called, in the Holy Quran, 'A Manifest Victory'.
- Great Muslim General Hazrat Khalid bin Waleed and A'mr bin A'as accepted Islam after the Treaty of Hudaibiyah.

The immediate cause of the Conquest of Makkah was the violation of the Treaty of Hdaybiyyah.

Banu Bakr, an ally of Quraysh, attacked Banu Khuza'ah, an ally of the Muslims.

Quraysh supported Banu Bakr in this attack, breaching the peace agreement.

Banu Khuza'ah sought the Prophet's (SAW) help, after which he marched towards Makkah.

8 Hijrih

Conquest of Makkah

- On the 10th of Ramadan, 8 AH, the Messenger of Allah (S.A.W.), along with his 10,000 companions, which was the largest Muslim force ever assembled as of that time, went on their journey to Makkah.
- The Conquest of Makkah happened in 630 CE (8 AH) when Prophet Muhammad SAW and his followers entered Makkah without fighting, after years of conflict with the Quraish tribe. Instead of seeking revenge, the Prophet showed kindness and forgave the people of Makkah. He gave everyone safety, showing his mercy. The idols around the Kaaba, which people had worshipped for years, were removed, and the Kaaba was returned to being a place to worship one God.

CONTINUE.....

- This moment ended idol worship in Makkah, and many people in the city accepted Islam because they were impressed by the Prophet's compassion. It was a turning point in the spread of Islam.
- Holy Prophet (SAW) entered the Ka'bah and broke all the idols placed inside Ka'bah and reciting the verse of Holy Quran (Sura Al Israa verse 81) “ Say the truth has come and falsehood has vanished”.
- Holy Prophet (SAW), who was a mercy unto mankind addressed to disbelievers of Makkah as “Today you all are free. There is no blame on you”.

10 HIJRIH

Farewell Pilgrimage

- Holy Prophet (SAW) left for Hajj on the 25th Zul-Qa'dah 10 A.H. and more than one hundred thousand companions joined him.
- Holy Prophet (SAW) tied ihram from Zul-Hulaifah, six miles from Madinah. They, reached Makkah on Saturday, 4th Zil-Hijjah.
- On the 9th Zul-Hijjah after reaching Arafaat, Prophet (SAW) delivered a very inspiring Khutbah (Speech) which was full of advice and wisdom. After performing Hajj, Prophet (SAW) remained in Makkah for few days and thereafter returned to Madinah.

Salient features of the Last Sermon

- Sanctity of Human Life: Life and property are sacred and must not be violated unjustly.
- End of Usury (Interest): All forms of riba (interest) are abolished, beginning with the Prophet's own family's dues.
- Abolition of Blood Revenge: All claims of blood vengeance from the pre-Islamic era were declared void.
- Unity of the Muslim Ummah: All Muslims are part of one brotherhood, regardless of tribe or race.
- Equality of All Humans: No Arab is superior to a non-Arab, and no white person is superior to a black person, except in piety (taqwa).
- Rights of Women: Women have rights over men just as men have rights over women; men must treat women kindly.
- Trust and Responsibility: Trusts must be returned to their rightful owners; accountability is emphasized.

- Brotherhood and Non-Violence: Do not harm others, so you may not be harmed; believers are brothers to one another.
- Finality of Prophethood: The Prophet SAW declared, “There is no prophet after me, and no new religion.”
- Holding Fast to Qur’an and Sunnah: He urged Muslims to follow the Qur’an and Sunnah to remain guided.
- Justice for All: Injustice of any kind, including against non-Muslims, is forbidden.
- Condemnation of Racism and Tribalism: Superiority lies only in piety and righteousness, not in lineage or race.
- Clear Conveyance of Message: The Prophet SAW confirmed that he had completed the delivery of the message.
- Inheritance Rights: Follow the Islamic rules of inheritance as outlined in the Qur’an.

II HIJRIH

Holy Prophet's last sickness and demise

- On 28th Safar II A.H. Holy Prophet (SAW) visited Jannatul Baqee where he made dua for the inmates of the graves. After returning home, he experienced a headache and from then onwards had a fever, which lasted for thirteen days.
- In this condition Holy Prophet (SAW) left this world.
- On Monday the 12th Rabi-ul-Awwal, after the Zuhr Salaah, Holy Prophet (SAW) left this worldly abode and went to meet his creator, Allah.
- He was buried in the apartment of Hazrat Aisha (RA).
- Holy Prophet (SAW) was sixty-three years old at the time of his demise.

The life and legacy of the Holy Prophet (SAW) serve as a perfect example (Uswa-e-Hasana) for Muslims to follow in all aspects of life. His teachings and actions continue to inspire millions of people around the world to strive for righteousness and excellence.

Ms. Shumaila Farman

Lecturer (Islamiat)

GEP, DIHPE, DMC

Topic 2

Part I

shumaila.farman@duhs.edu.pk

